BUSINESS ICON JOINS JUBILEE AS HONORARY CHAIR FOR ANNUAL FUNDRAISING GALA

Fort Worth, TX – Longtime Texas Wesleyan Board of Trustee member, Norma Roby, will graciously serve as Jubilee Theatre’s honorary chair for their Annual Fundraising Gala “Showtime” scheduled for Friday, May 18th, 2018 at Red Oak Ballroom. Despite her busy business schedule, Roby contributes to her community in numerous ways by serving on boards such as Fort Worth Metropolitan Black Chamber of Commerce Advisory Council, Medical Center of Fort Worth and the Fort Worth Promotion and Development Fund.

A community leader, Roby has over 30 years of experience as a concessionaire with businesses at the Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport. She is one of the industry pioneers of women and minorities business owners at U.S. Airports and is a charter member of the Airport Minority Advisory Council (AMAC). Off airport business ventures have included a multi-year contract for multiple food concessions at the Texas Motor Speedway, inmate telephone contracts in both Dallas and Fort Bend Counties and a joint venture concession contract at the Fort Worth Convention Center.

Roby’s past professional, civic and community involvement includes the following organizations: the Texas Commission for Women and for the Commission on Travel and Tourism, White House Conferences on Travel and Tourism and The North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), The Air War College National Security Forum. She has also been a member on numerous boards of directors including Cook Children’s Hospital, Fort Worth Sister Cities, Fort Worth Convention and Visitors Bureau, Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce and the Fort Worth Ethics Review Commission.

For more than 37 years, Jubilee Theatre has produced plays and musicals which speak to the African American experience. Located in the heart of Sundance Square, it is proudly entrenched in the city of Fort Worth's rich cultural history. We continue that mission today with the help of community partners who understand the importance of artistic expression to enrich and entertain North Texas.

Jubilee's success is largely credited to the contributions of loyal supporters. Annually, the funds go directly to supporting the general operations of Jubilee Theatre. Your much-needed support will enable us to perpetuate, cultivate as well as innovate future theatrical productions on the Jubilee stage.
