Jubilee Theatre announces arrival of new Marketing & Operations Director

Fort Worth, TX (August 6, 2019) – The award-winning Jubilee Theatre, proudly announces the arrival of Bradley Walls as Marketing & Operations Director. Bradley joins D. Wambui Richardson, Artistic Director, and Christie Howard, Managing Director, just as the 2018-19 season concludes.

Prior to joining Jubilee, Bradley worked as General Manager for Symphony Arlington; his experience also includes work with Lamar Advertising and The Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza. Bradley holds a bachelor's degree in Marketing, and a graduate certificate in Arts Administration. As a lifelong supporter of the arts in DFW, Bradley is eager to expand Jubilee's audience.

Jubilee Theatre's 2019-2020 season begins with Single Black Female on September 27th. Under the new direction of Artistic Director D. Wambui Richardson, Season 39 has been titled "Shades of Us", reflecting the diverse tapestry of voices in the upcoming dramatic and musical productions.

Jubilee's mission is to create and produce theatrical works that give voice to the African-American experience.

All performances are held at Jubilee Theatre in Downtown Ft. Worth.
